I know which one I would go for Export to Flash If you want to put your slides online it is pretty hard going in PowerPoint.. PowerPoint on the other hand can set you back at current prices around £171 or $197 (so why exactly is it almost twice as much in the UK?) For less than this you can get Open Office Impress, an iPod Nano and have enough left over for a modest meal.. If you get a file from someone in PowerPoint format (usually ppt or pptx) and you need to open or edit it in LibreOffice or OpenOffice Impress, then here is how to do it.. Download free PowerPoint templates compatible with OpenOffice Impress and learn OpenOffice tips and how to use OpenOffice to create PowerPoint presentations and documents..
